One of the leaders of the unemployed, who have been occupying the government's post-office lot in San Francisco, made their cause ridiculous the other day, pleading with a government official in behalf of the men and gesticulating with a hand on which glinted a large diamond ring.

The case of the State of Nevada ex rel H. H. Beck vs. the County Commissioners and Auditor Williams, upon whom was served a writ of certiorari restraining them from paying out a thousand dollars toward the expenses of the 4th of July celebration, will be argued before the Supreme Court Monday.

To get the best trade in buying furniture go to Geo. W. Kitzmeyer. He has undoubtedly established a reputation for fair dealing in his thirty years in business in Carson.

One of our contemporaries copies an article from the Reno Journal in reference to Nevada's big scoop at Chicago. The article appeared originally in the APPEAL several days ago.

Over 600 acres of Nevada land were filed on last week, and the cash receipts of the Land Office were $2,895.

From Empire.

Empire, Dec. 1st, 1893.

Wiggins' shooting match was well patronized in Empire. All of his poultry was gone before night and the good natured well behaved crowd dispersed after their two days sport to go to the masquerade ball. There was a tremendous crowd at the ball and the hall was not quite large enough to accommodate the dancers.

The Ambrose brothers and Will Day furnished the music. Dancing commenced at nine and the dancing was kept up till four this morning. Mrs. Kohl gave the supper which was first class. Douglas, Lyon, Storey and Washoe counties were all well represented at the ball. Everything was harmonious among the dancers but there was a couple of scraps in the saloon, no great damage done, however, a black eye, a stiff neck and a swollen hand is all there is to mend.

After the ball the town was painted a flaming carmine by the boys and your correspondent was in such a hilarious mood that he wrote a piece of poetry in honor of the event, which is hereby submitted:

As soon as the dancing was over,
The ladies all home and in bed,
Our Willie boys all got together,
Determined to paint the town red.

There was shuffle board, pedro and poker.
Seven up, euchre and dice,
Black coffee, roast turkey and egg-nog.

With everything else that was nice,
The large souled, munificent Wiggins,
Grand entertainer and wit,
Furnished solids, liquids and music.

And everything else he saw fit.
The string band discoursed sweetest music,
The glee club did Maher's dream sing,
Satan's darlings was sung with a spirit

That made the old sea port town ring.
Good will and a better was the order
Till after daylight in the morn,
Wiggins said are you not getting tired?

They all said we are—in a horn.
NEIL MAHER.
[There are about three yards more of this poetry, which is crowded out to make room for live advertising. Sufficient is published, however, to show the general gist of the hilarity after the ball adjourned.—Ed.]

THE MIDWINTER FAIR.

Nevada Prepares to Be There in Good Shape.

The tremendous success of the Nevada exhibit at Chicago has stimulated the people of Nevada to make a big effort to follow up their advantages.

The fact that the State took first premium on apples, butter and cheese has already begun to be felt here, as agents of Eastern buyers are scouring the State for apples and paying good prices for them.

The creamery companies are getting more orders for butter and cheese from the Eastern States than they can fill and as a result the price of milk cows is advancing and ranchers are buying up all the cows offered, to increase their facilities for furnishing the creameries with milk.

Today Nevada butter is commanding 5 cts per pound more than Elgin butter, in Illinois, and the creameries are sending their butter East by the carload, and are still unable to supply the demand.

In addition to this inquiries are constantly being received in reference to the salt, borax and niter deposits of the State, all of which took first premium in Chicago, while the demand for these articles has been materially increased.

The immediate results from the Chicago exhibit have astonished the people of Nevada and it is now proposed to raise $20,000 if possible for an exhibit at the Midwinter, which will be second to no State on the Coast, California alone excepted.

The Southern Pacific have reduced the rates and extended the time of round trip tickets from Nevada to the Fair 30 days.

This will cause about three times as many people to go to San Francisco this winter as before.

Letters have been written to Senators Jones and Stewart, Alvinza Hayward, John Mackey, James Fair and other men who made their fortunes in Nevada, asking them for contributions, and it is not likely that they will refuse.

The Sharon estate will also give $1,000.

The following gentlemen have contributed $100 each toward defraying the expenses of the exhibit: R. K. Colcord, M. D. Foley, Theo. Winters, John Bradley and John Lee of Wadsworth.

During the coming week Richard Foote the actor with his entire company will play in Virginia City, Carson and Reno for the benefit of the Nevada exhibit, presenting a good double bill in each place, consisting of Don Cesar de Bazan and the Old Guard one night, and Hugo the Hunchback and an act of comedy the next. He will play at popular prices thereby enabling everybody to go, and the entire proceeds go to the Nevada Fair Commissioners. The Opera Houses in Virginia City, Carson and has been kindly donated and it is thought that at least $2,000 will be raised in the three towns.

All exhibits from Ormsby county can be left with J. D. Kersey, Joshua Robinson or Gilbert Briggs who will take care of them and ship them free of charge to San Francisco.

$20 Reward.

In reference to the statement in the Tribune that some shooters were barred from Wiggins' turkey match, Mr. Wiggins offers $20 reward to anyone who was barred.

The Tribune is merely slurring Mr. Wiggins because the gentleman has too much sense to throw good money away advertising in the quiet columns of our twilight contemporary.

The Kramer Benefit.

A large number of tickets for the benefit of A. Kramer and family have been disposed of and good music has been engaged. The tickets are one dollar and admit gentlemen and ladies.

During the evening a supper will be served for 25 cents per head. The dance will take place at the Armory Hall next Friday night.

NEVADA'S EXHIBIT.

Discussed at an Informal Meeting at Reno.

An informal meeting of the Board of Directors of the State Board of Agriculture was held in the Nevada Bank yesterday afternoon, where matters relative to Nevada's exhibit at the Midwinter Fair were discussed. As there was no quorum present, official action was postponed until next Saturday. James Yerington, in reply to a request for his views on the subject, suggested that Nevada's building be made in the shape of a Greek cross, on the same plan as the Brazilian building at the World's Fair, which in his opinion was the most beautiful building there and had the advantage of being well lighted on account of the numerous windows. In the centre of the first floor there would be room for a large pyramid, and the agricultural exhibit could be arranged on one side and that of the mines and mining on the other. Then up stairs there would be a rotunda in the centre, around which there would be a promenade and seats arranged, and it would also be advisable to have reception rooms and the necessary offices on the upper floor; if the ladies would stand in, the walls on the second floor would afford space for a display of fancy work and fine arts. A wide gallery he said should encircle the outside of the second story of the building, and if it were possible to persuade the Fair management to allow Nevada to make concessions on her own ground, a part of the gallery could be fitted up as a cafe and rented for a certain percentage of the receipts, which, together with other concessions that could be made, would help wonderfully toward defraying the expenses.

When the subject of Nevada material and labor for the building was brought up, it was decided, after considerable discussion, that the best plan would be to have Mr. Yerington go to San Francisco as soon as possible and secure the figures of the contractors there and then after reporting to the Board in Reno, the most advisable plan could soon be determined. All of those present seemed to favor the foregoing suggestions, and it will doubtless be so ordered at the meeting to-morrow.

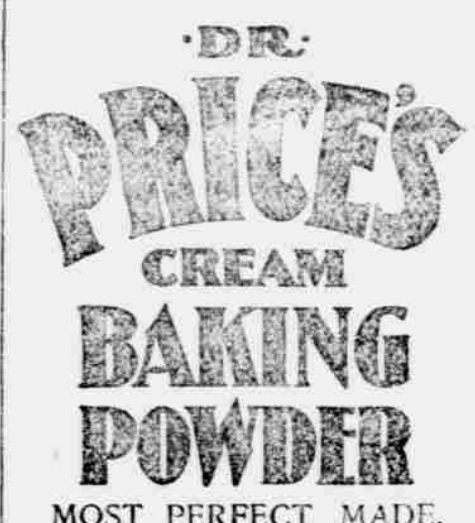

Mr. Yerington showed three elegant official ribbons with representations of the medals thereon that have been awarded Nevada for sodas, salts, borax, sulphur, silica, mineral soap, mineral exhibit, marble, Wilson's mineral pick exhibited by the State of Nevada, apples, flour, wheat, seeds, grasses, honey, barley, millet, oats, sorghum, potatoes and cheese.—Reno Gazette.

Experiment Station Bulletins.

The APPEAL has received a copy of bulletins No 20 and 21, issued by the experiment station of the Nevada university. The former treats of potato and tobacco culture and the latter of the noxious plants of Nevada. Besides a complete description of the weeds a dried sample of the different varieties is attached to the leaves of the pamphlet, so they can be easily identified. These bulletins are very valuable to farmers and will be sent free upon application to the experiment station, Reno, Nevada.

The Veteran Fireman.

Chas. Wilson, of the Mint, has received a large photograph taken in Washington D. C. of the Veteran Fireman of California and Washington City one group. If one can judge from the photo, the men are a determined lot of old fellows, and despite their age could handle a fire a good deal better than a lot of green hands.
